

INTERNSHIP BOTHO EMERGING MARKETS GROUP

About Botho

Botho Emerging Markets Group is a leading investment advisory and strategy consultancy with deep roots in Africa, Asia, and the Middle East. We guide Fortune 500 companies, governments, development institutions, small businesses, and nonprofits in navigating the world's fastest-growing markets.

Over the past decade, Botho has managed over $900 million in debt and equity across Africa. Our local and international team comprises market risk analysts, industry specialists, and policy advisors.

We're redefining Africa's role on the global stage by enhancing the exchange of investments and opportunities between African countries and emerging markets.

We catalyze conversations, connect capital, and create opportunities to drive growth in sustainable trade within key emerging markets. Botho is the Setswana word for respect, which shapes our approach to our vision.

The firm is jointly headquartered in Dubai and Nairobi, with additional Fellows and Associates in different parts of the world.

Position Overview

Botho has an immediate opening for a 3-month internship in Nairobi. A successful candidate will be a motivated, well organized, and reliable self-starter with demonstrable knowledge of and interest in key issues (geopolitical, economic, and developmental) in Africa and the Gulf Region, and possess strong research and writing skills. Experience and interest in working on investment promotion issues are a plus.

Internships may lead to full-time opportunities in Botho's offices, dependent on outstanding performance during the initial 3-month internship. This is also an opportunity to receive training in the areas of investment advisory and strategy consulting, as well as skills training in areas, including but not limited to financial modeling, data analysis, social media, writing, research, and program planning. In addition to assisting with research, interns have the opportunity to network with experts in their chosen fields.

Position Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in business, political science, marketing & communications, international relations, or other related field is required. Students in their penultimate or final year of study may also be considered for this position.
- Language: Fluency in English required. Proficiency in Arabic or another relevant language is preferred.
- Demonstrated interest in African economic and development issues.
- Possess the poise, tact, discretion, and mature judgment to be able to work under the pressure of deadlines in a high-pressure team environment.
- Excellent research and analytical skills, including strong quantitative skills.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills, including an ability to communicate complicated industry and policy issues for a non-technical audience.
- Identify sources with minimal direction and compile and organize reports.
- Commitment to the organization's mission and goals.

Position Preferences:

- Prior experience working or traveling in Africa or the Gulf region
- Prior experience working on social media or on other digital platforms
- Prior experience working with design software such as Adobe, Canva, etc.

*We are open to considering remote working arrangements for outstanding candidates.

HOW TO APPLY
